June 8, 2012 • 8:00am - 12:15pm
Raritan Valley Community College • Route 28 & Lamington Road, North Branch, NJ

Conference Schedule

8:00 A.M. – 8:45 A.M.  Exhibits Open, Registration, and Networking Breakfast (Continental Breakfast)

8:45 A.M.  Opening Remarks
Sean Moreland, Chair, Sustainable Somerset Educational Taskforce, JPMorgan Chase Bank
Mike Kerwin, President/CEO, Somerset County Business Partnership
Honorable Bob Zaborowski, Somerset County Board of Chosen Freeholders

Welcome to RVCC, Sustainable Higher Education
John Trojan, VP Finance & Facilities, Raritan Valley Community College

Keynote: Beyond Sustainability - What the Future Holds
Mark Biedron, LEED AP, Co-Founder, The Willow School

An Overview of Sustainability for Business: Innovation Cost Savings Opportunities
Sara Bluhm, Vice President, NJBIA Environment, Energy & Federal Affairs and Executive Director, NJPRO Foundation

Panel 1: Sustainability as a Competitive Advantage
Angela Ortiz, Environmental Resource Manager, PSE&G
Mark Waddell, Project Mgr. LEED AP, Iron Hill Construction Management
Gary Cohen, Vice President, RC Fine Foods
Parynaz Mehta, Sr. Manager of Product Stewardship, Medical Device & Diagnostics, LLC, A Johnson & Johnson Company
Moderated by Sara Bluhm

Break, Exhibits Reopen  (20 minutes)

Energy Council Recognition of Somerset County’s Green Ribbon Schools
Jeanne Perantoni, Chair, Somerset County Energy Council Education Outreach Committee

Panel 2: Innovative Funding Strategies for your Energy Projects
Sean Yates, Account Executive, Honeywell Energy Solutions
William Amann, President, M&E Engineers, Inc. and Chair, Somerset County Energy Council
RJ Donnelly, LEED AP, Vice President, Donnelly Energy Solutions and Executive Board Secretary, U.S. Green Building Council
Moderated by Paula Durand, Sr. Venture Officer, NJ Economic Development Authority

The Green Challenge
Ed Seliga, Vice President, Advanced Solar Products and Chair, Sustainable Somerset
Mike Kerwin, President/CEO, Somerset County Business Partnership

Exhibits Reopen

12:15 P.M.  Tour of Raritan Valley Community College, LEED Certified Building (optional)